This Sunday

The word 'neurotypical' was invented by people seeking to create an understanding of people on the autism spectrum. But what if we are all "out of the ordinary?" Can a society exist without rigid norms? Does our value of pluralism bring us closer to the community or atomize us?

Service Leader: Rev. Thomas Perchlik

Celebrant: Chris Rader

Gathering the Community

Pre-service Announcement Loop

Prelude: by Ken Hunnicutt

Welcome: Chris Rader

Affirming Our Connections

Congregational Song: #145 "As Tranquil Streams"

Opening Words: Rev. Thomas Perchlik, adapted from A. Powell Davies

Chalice Lighting: Chris Rader

*We gather this hour as people of faith
With joys and sorrows, gifts and needs.
We light this beacon of hope,
Sign of our quest for truth and meaning,
In celebration of the life we share.*

THE SILENT AUCTION CONTINUES!

We're off to CUUF's Goods and Services Auction!

You still have a chance to bid on some great services, events, and items! The posters and bid sheets for the silent auction are on the walls in the sanctuary. Check out what's still available online at togetherauction.com/cascadeuu.

Can't make it to church? Ask someone to bid for you. Our Silent Auction ends with a 'Last-Bid Continental Breakfast' starting at 9:00 AM on Nov. 24, with bidding closing BEFORE the service at 10:15 AM.

PAYING FOR SILENT AUCTION ITEMS

Please plan on paying for your auction items after the service on Nov. 24 with cash, card, or check. Allow some extra time, as many will be checking out simultaneously. You will receive an invoice if you can't be present that day.

There's no place like CUUF!
