Service Leader: Rev. Thomas Perchlik

Celebrant: Chris Rader

One of Rev. Thomas' first sermons for CUUF asked, 'Why have a straight, white guy as lead minister?' Was that about justice or merely difference? Meanwhile, some see our approach to gender as a threat to decency. What do the social norms of this society, and of UU culture, have to do with our spirituality and the purpose of our Fellowship? Remember that 'J' stands for 'Justice' in the list "J.E.T.P.I.G."

This service will also include a Share the Plate for Chelan-Douglas Volunteer Attorney Services
