Service Leader: Rev. Amy Zucker Morgenstern
Celebrant: Rita Salama

As both UUs and US Americans, we benefit from the gifts of the Enlightenment, such as science and reason, individual liberty, and religious tolerance. Part of this heritage has also been such a strong emphasis on the individual that we can lose sight of the things we can do together, and only together. Wisdom and the future of our world require that we take personal responsibility, but also remember the power of "we" — and act on it.
